The question of the day is how to keep your house warm. Why, go to McClanahan & Shaw's and buy either a Moore's Air-Tight, Estate Radiator or Favorite Hermetic Oak Stove.

Monday's LEDGER will contain an article that should be read by every patriotic lady in Maysville; and it wouldn't be amiss if every Merchant in the city would see just what THE LEDGER is trying to do for him—and help the cause along.

The War is over. Vacation is over. And now for business. You can get that most surely by advertising in THE LEDGER.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. J. S. Ball of Lower Blueicks to Mrs. Emma Hood of Elizaville, which event will take place November 9th. Mr. Ball is a prosperous farmer near Lower Blueicks. The bride-to-be is the daughter of a well known farmer of Johnson, Mr. William Bell, and a niece of Mr. L. C. Overly of this city.

Mr. John F. Pogue is now in New York and other Eastern cities securing names on petitions to Congress providing for a 90-cent tax and a seven-year bonded period, or a 90-cent tax and the Evans bill. In the opinion of many whiskey men, the Evans bill will carry a five-year bonded period instead of a seven-year period before it passes. Any reduction will be savagely fought by the distillers.

Henry Tolle, living on Short street, started to commit suicide last, but before he accomplished the deed his nerve failed him. He had been out of work for some time, and this had a depressing influence on him. He was asked last night to sit up with a relative, Mr. Greenlee. He kicked against the job, and in order to have an excuse proceeded to kill himself. He stabbed himself, but the sight of blood unnerved him and he ran out on the street calling for help. An examination of the wound proved him only slightly hurt.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old-time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well-informed. Buy the genuine. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

SUPPLY ONE LINK.

A Letter Chain to Buy a Piano for the New Opera-House.

Today an enterprise has been started by two young ladies which should receive the ardent support of every citizen in Maysville.

Our beautiful Opera-house is nearing completion, and before many months we will be ready to receive the first artists of the country, whom the present able management will do its best to secure.

Should we be willing to mar the pleasure of each evening spent there by the absence of an instrument which will do justice to the skill of the performer? For many years the chief drawback to otherwise successful entertainments has been the lack of good musical support.

A chain has been started for the purpose of purchasing a Piano, and every one should add a link, and thus aid the brethren, upon whom we are all dependent and who never fail us in our time of need.

Above all, let no one break the chain, as a single break will bring disaster to the cause.

Hoeflich's Saturday Sales. 10c. Canton 7 1/2c. Blankets 30c. pair. P. K. Gloves, fitted, 50c.

WEDDED AT LINWOOD.

Former Maysville Lady Becomes the Wife of a Cincinnati Man.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Seymour Maltby, daughter of Mrs. Emily Coons Maltby, to Mr. Harry Edgar Lewis was beautifully celebrated Wednesday night at Calvary Presbyterian Church, Linwood.

The chance of the pretty little edifice was elaborately decorated with plants and flowers, and masses of autumn leaves showed among the green.

The bridal party consisted of Master Harry Edgar Pogue, the bride's little nephew, who, representing Cupid, bore to the altar on his bow and arrow the wedding ring; four ushers, Messrs. Dan Hay, Ewing Blaine, Charles Carpenter and Frank Carpenter; Mr. George Whitmer as best man, and Miss Mayme Bond of Madisonville as Maid of Honor. The bride came in on the arm of her brother, Mr. C. C. Maltby. Rev. C. L. Myers performed the ceremony.

The bride looked very lovely in her simple wedding gown of white organdie over white silk. She wore a veil and carried white roses.

Mr. Lewis is very popular and is a train dispatcher for the Little Miami Road. The presents were numerous and beautiful, not the least appreciated among them being a handsome dining room set from the railroad boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left for a two weeks' trip in the East, after which they will return to Linwood, where they will make their home on Elmer avenue.

Leander Cord of near Ewing, father of C. S. Cord of this county, was kicked by a horse several days ago and is in a serious condition.

John J. Korn, Administrator of the estate of John J. Korn, Jr., filed suit at Portsmouth against the C. and O. Railway for $10,000 damages. Young Korn was ejected from an East-bound C. and O. train about a mile East of Springfield on the evening of January 28th, dying, it is alleged, from exposure that night.

CITY TAXES

FOR 1898.

.... Tax Receipts for 1898 are now in my hands for collection.

.... On all not paid by November 1st a penalty of 10 per cent. will be added.

J. W. FITZGERALD,

City Treasurer.

THE Oddfellows Hall Clothing Store!

Why so many buy here, and you should, too. Because we have gained a reputation for selling only good clothing and at modest prices. You see more styles and better values in our house than any other in the state. That may seem strange, but it's so just the same. People tell us so, and they know our

Fall and Winter Stock of Clothing

For Men, Boys and Children is the largest we ever had. It matters not what you want we can fill the bill. The same can be said of our Furnishing Goods Department. In this Department you find the good and durable moderate price goods up to the very best made.

Our Shoe Department

Has quickly grown to be a feature in our business. Like in all our other lines, we handle only the very best makes. Every pair Shoes we sell we guarantee to wear all right. Look in our show window and you will see just what you want in the way of a nice pair of Shoes. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO

LEADERS IN FINE CLOTHING AND SHOES

CONCERNING GLOVES

At $1.00 a Pair.

Critique these gloves, you women who know glove goodness. Critique them you men who deal in gloves. Have you ever seen equal value at the price? Have you ever even seen it at 50c. a pair more? Women's Fedoras, glace kid, white, black, colors, in two clasps.

COATS FOR WOMEN . . .

Is $3 on the price of a coat worth saving? Your coat needs can be filled from this stock at just such a saving. Style and low-price are the dominant notes in our cloakroom.

WOMEN'S SUITS for $10 and $12.50 . . .

Trust us for the worth of the garments. We've a reputation to sustain as regards Tailor-made Suits. Depend on it, we'll not risk it with trashy ill made garments.

DRESS GOODS . . .

Here are the camel's hair weaves, soft as down; the Drap d'Ete with its lustrous serviceableness, sturdy whipcord, dignified poplins, long wearing coverlets and chevrons, swell bayadere effects and diagonals, dressy armures, elegant crepons. 75 variations in these fabrics alone. Plain in weaves but beautiful in effect. A gathering that satisfies by its completeness. This hint of price ranges— Venetian Coverlets, $1 to $1.50. Bayadere, $1 to $2.50. Poplins, $1 to $1.75.

D. HUNT & SON.

THE BEE HIVE. FOUR

Cloak Specials

These "specials" are no more worthy than any other of the thousand and one garments in our immense Cloak stock. We've simply selected these four numbers at random so that you can give 'em "special" attention and make proper comparisons. Number one is Ladies' Jacket of tan Venetian Cloth with either double breasted or box front, half silk lined, would be lowly priced at $7 50, our price $5 75. Number two is a Misses' Jacket of Tan Covert Cloth, box front, velvet collar, made to sell for $6 50, savingly priced here at $4 75. Number three is a Ladies' Double Cape of blue or black kersey cloth, trimmed with fur and three rows of Hercules Braid, others are asking $3 for such as these, priced down here at $1 89. Number four is a Fur Collarette, all silk lined, worth fully $2 50, but we've marked 'em to sell quickly at $1 75.

A Departure in Book Selling.

On our newly-opened Book Counter you'll find books so cheaply priced that you'll agree with us it's truly a "departure" from the old time 100 per cent. profit method. We're showing an edition of standard and classical works, 101 different titles, bound in ivory finished cloth, publisher's price 40c., our price 19c. A magnificent copy of the great novel Quo Vadis, in cloth binding, with good paper, large type and copiously illustrated; the publisher's price is $1; to get your attention we're selling 'em at 49c.
